Section 4
GREY HIGHLANDS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE shall be non-sectional and nonsectarian and shall not lend its support to any candidate for public office.

Section 5
References in this bi-law to the masculine gender shall also refer to the feminine gender as the context may require.

ARTICLE II – INTERPRETATION

Section 1
Wherever the words “The Chamber” occur in these by-laws, they shall be understood to mean GREY HIGHLANDS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE as a body.

Section 2
Wherever the words “The Council” occur in these by-laws, they shall be understood to mean the Council of GREY HIGHLANDS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Section 3

Wherever the word “District” occurs in these by-laws, it shall mean that area, within and for which this Chamber was established as defined in the Certificate of Registration under the Boards of Trade Act, or other appropriate Provincial Statute (R.S., c.124, s.1)

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1

Any reputable person, directly or indirectly engaged or interested in trade, commerce or the economic and social welfare of the District, shall be eligible for membership in The Chamber

Section 2

Associations, Corporations, Societies, Partnerships or Estates, directly or indirectly engaged in or interested in trade, commerce or the economic or social welfare of the District shall be eligible for membership in The Chamber.

Section 3

At any general meeting of the Chamber, any member in good standing may propose any eligible person or organization as a candidate for becoming a member of The Chamber, providing such candidate shall undertake, if admitted, to be governed by the by-laws of The Chamber.

Section 4

If such proposal is carried by a majority of two-thirds of the members of The Chamber then present, such person or organization shall thenceforth be a member of The Chamber and shall have all rights and be subject to all the obligations of the other members.

Section 5

Membership shall continue from the time of admittance until a member has resigned in accordance with the provisions of these by-laws or has been removed from the roll of member by action of The Council, or has failed to pay the required membership dues. Any retiring or resigning member shall be responsible for discharging any lawful liability which is standing upon the books of The Chamber against him at the time of such retirement or resignation.
Section 6

The council may remove from the roll of members the name of any new member failing to pay his annual dues within thirty (30) days of his admission, or of any other member who fails to pay such dues within three (3) months of the date they fall due. Upon such action by The Council, all privileges of membership shall be forfeited.

Section 7

Persons who have distinguished themselves by some meritorious or public service may be elected Honourary Members by a majority vote of The Chamber. Such recognition shall be for a term of one year and may be repeated. Such recognition shall include all the privileges of active membership except that of holding office, with the exemption from the payment of annual dues.

Section 8

Any member of The Chamber may be expelled by a two-thirds vote of the council.

ARTICLE IV – DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

Section 1

The annual dues payable by members of The Chamber shall be reviewed and determined annually by The Council, subject to the approval of a two-thirds majority of the members present at the general meeting whenever a change in the original amount is involved.

Section 2

Other assessments may be levied against all members, provided they are recommended by The Council and approved by a two-thirds majority of the members present at a general meeting of The Chamber. The notice calling such general meeting shall state the nature of the proposed assessment.
ARTICLE V – OFFICERS AND COUNCIL

Section 1

A President, Vice-President, Recording-Secretary, a Secretary, Treasurer and seven (7) directors shall be elected from among the members each year at an annual general meeting by ballot and shall form the council. They shall remain in office for two (2) years or until their successors shall be appointed. The five (5) officers shall be elected for the fiscal year 1996 and the seven (7) directors shall be elected in the following year so that the elections of the officers and directors take place in alternate years. The retiring president shall be ex-officio, a member of the council.

Section 2

Where a Director of The Council dies or resigns his office or is absent from three consecutive meetings of The Council, without just cause The Council may, at any meeting thereof, elect a member of the Corporation to be a member of The Council, in the place of the member who has died or resigned or is absent.

Section 3

Any officer may be suspended from his office or have his tenure of office terminated, if in the opinion of The Council he is grossly negligent in the performance of his duties, providing however, that any officers or Council member so suspended or whose tenure of office has been terminated, shall be at liberty to appeal, in writing, the decision of The Council directly to the Membership at the next general meeting.

Section 4

The Council shall have the general power of administration. It may make or authorize petitions or representations to the Government of Parliament of Canada, the Government of Legislature of the Province of Ontario, or others as it may determine or as may be required by vote of a majority of members present at any general meeting.

Section 5

The Council shall, in addition to the powers hereby expressly conferred on it, have such powers as are assigned to it by any by-law of The Chamber provided, however, that such powers are not inconsistent with the provisions of the Boards of Trade Act.

Section 6

Any five (5) or more members of The Council, lawfully met, shall be a quorum and a majority of such quorum may do all things within the power of The Council.
Section 7

The Council shall frame such by-laws, rules and regulations as appear to it, and best adapted to promote the welfare of The Chamber and shall submit them for adoption, at a general meeting of The Chamber, called for that purpose.

Section 8

The Council, or, at its request the President, may appoint committees or designate members of The Council or others, to examine, consider and report upon any matter or take such action as The Council may request.

Section 9

The Council may suspend any chairman from office or have his office terminated for just cause. Any committee may be terminated by The Council.

Section 10
